Gentlemen

I am sending you a better description then in my previous letter of my old Greek coin it is of Diadrachm of Haraclea B.C. 380-300 it has a bronze collor and the designe on one side is a man wrestling with a lion and on the othur side is the profile of a person's face. The inscription on the coin is something like the following
ΛΚΛΡΚΑΠΙΤΕ

Your very truely

Dear Sir:

Thank you for the additional description of your coin. It is not of the commonest type. If you care to send it on, so we can see it, we will make you an offer for it.

Very truly yours,
